Map Description: Myths and legends revealed this ancient labyrinth, once built by the bloody hands of prisoners and slaves of merciless tyrants ruling the Unreal Tournament World. A few hardened veterans travelled back in time to track down the maze fallen into oblivion. Fast paced deathmatch at its best!

The Frag Brother says " Insane to say the least" don't dodge, and be ready to play hard, Shall we take a look.

Bottom line you either like this map or hate it, now in my case I bet I fall off more than I stay on.
